

COMMISSION ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP
PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

Stakeholder Forum

Stakeholder Forum is a multi-stakeholder organisation, which has been working to further the implementation of the sustainable development agenda since 1992. The organisation operates at the national, regional and international level by providing space for dialogue and policy development between stakeholders and stakeholders and governments. This includes: local government, trade unions, industry, NGOs, women groups, youth, education groups, scientists and academics, media and regional governments. In addition we work closely with UN agencies addressing the environment and development issues by capacity building stakeholders and raising awareness. These agencies principally include: the UN Commission on Sustainable Development, UNEP, UNEP, WHO.

Stakeholder Forum has played an important role in the development of stakeholder dialogues at the global level. It has also been the facilitator of the multi-stakeholder dialogues at the following meetings:

- The WHO London European Health and Environmental Conference (1999)
- The Second World Water Forum (2000)
- The Informal Environmental Ministers Meeting (2000)
- The Bonn International Freshwaters Conference (2001)
- The Implementation Conference (2002)
- The Bonn International Renewable Energy Conference (2004)

Within its mandate Stakeholder Forum is engaged in the following activities:

- Promoting multistakeholder processes
- Researching and influencing policy development
- Providing and spreading information on the intergovernmental agenda
- Training and capacity building

To communicate the work of sustainable development Stakeholder Forum has two publications. These are a monthly online newsletter Network 2005 and its sister publication Outreach 2005 which comes out daily at different UN meetings.

In its partnership with Earthscan Stakeholder Forum have brought out nine books:

1997 The Way Forward Beyond Agenda 21

1998 Earth Summit II Outcomes and Analysis

1999 Poverty in Plenty A UK Human Development Report

The banner features a teal and blue background with a wireframe globe and a satellite image of Earth. The text is centered in a serif font.
